HOUSE JOURNAL

EXTRA SESSION 1938

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, August 8, 1938

Pursuant to a call of his Excellency, Governor Clyde R. Hoey, hereinafter recorded, the House of Representatives of the General Assembly convenes in its Hall in Extraordinary Session, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, Monday, August 8, 1938 and is called to order by Mr. Speaker Cherry.

Prayer by Dan Tompkins, Reading Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The roll of members is called, and the following members answer to their names: Messrs. Abernathy, Adams, Allen, Andrews, Atkinson, Aycock, Baley, Banks of Jones, Banks of Pamlico, Barker, Barnes, Benton, Berry, Best of Pender, Best of Wayne, Blankenship, Blount, Bost, Brooks, Bryant, Burgin, Burleson, Cabe, Caffey, Carruthers, Clark, Craig, Davis of Dare, Davis of Hyde, Davis of Randolph, Dellinger of Avery, Dellinger of Gaston, Eagles, Elkins, Finch, Flowers, Fulghum, Gardner, Garrett, Gass, Grant, Gray, Hanford, Hash, Hatch, Haynes, Hobbs, Horton, Howard, Johnson of Currituck, Johnston of Iredell, Jones, Joyner, Kimzey, Ledbetter, Leggett, Lumpkin, Mayhew, Martin, Meekins, Mitchell, Moore, Murphy, McBryde, McDowell, McDuffie, McNair, McNeill, Norwood, Patton, Paylor, Peace, Pickens, Poole, Pope, Quinn, Raspberry, Royster, Scott, Seeley, Sentelle, Siler, Spruill, Stell, Stone, Summersill, Tatem, Taylor of Alleghany, Taylor of Caswell, Thomas of Anson, Thomas of Harnett, Thornton, Underwood, Uzzell, Vogler, Ward, Warren, White, Williamson, Wilson of Forsyth, Wilson of Sampson, Withrow, Zickler—103.

A quorum being present the proclamation of the Governor convening the Extraordinary Session is read as follows:

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

EXECUTIVE OFFICES

WHEREAS, under the provisions of the Act of Congress appropriating money for the Public Works Administration in making grants and loans to the several states and municipalities it is necessary that application shall be filed prior to September 30th, 1938, showing funds available on the part of the applicant to provide for its part of the cost of construction, and that it is further required that work shall actually begin on all of said projects receiving Federal grants or loans prior to January 1st, 1939; and, whereas, a large amount of the sum appropriated by Congress for this purpose has already been allocated and in order for North Carolina to participate in the benefits of this appropriation it will be necessary for provision to be made to make available the funds necessary to comply with the requirements of the Federal government to prevent the State suffering the loss which would be entailed by the failure to receive grants for necessary permanent improvements which are now obtainable; and, whereas, an extraordinary occasion therefor exists, such as is contemplated in Article III, Section 9 of the Constitution of North Carolina:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Clyde R. Hoey, Governor, by and with the advice of the Council of State, do hereby convene the General Assembly of North Carolina in Extra Session, to begin at 12:00 o'clock noon, on the 8th day of August, 1938, and to continue until the proper business of the Session has been disposed of or until such Session has been adjourned in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State; and to that end, I do hereby call upon, notify, and direct all members of the said General Assembly to meet in the Capitol in the City of Raleigh at the said day and hour, in such General Assembly as provided by the Constitution and the laws, to consider and enact such laws as may be proper in the premises.

Done in the City of Raleigh this the 1st day of August in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-eight, and in the 163rd year of American Independence.

(Signed) CLYDE R. HOEY, Governor.

By the Governor:

ROBERT L. THOMPSON,
Private Secretary.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following House Resolutions are offered by Messrs. Siler of Chatham and Thomas of Anson which are adopted.

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

WHEREAS, the extraordinary occasion which required the Governor, by and with the advice of the Council of State, to call a Special Session of the General Assembly, was explained by the Governor in a statement issued by him to the press at the time of the proclamation calling the Special Session; and whereas, as explained in said statement, and in the Governor's message to the General Assembly, the purpose for which the Special Session was called was to permit the consideration of legislation authorizing the State of North Carolina to issue and sell bonds, the proceeds of which might be used for necessary permanent improvements in the State's departments and institutions, and the necessary permanent improvements to be made by the State of North Carolina, the enactment of a Revenue Bond Act in order that the State of North Carolina, for itself and in its departments and institutions, and the municipal corporations of North Carolina, may secure the necessary laws permitting the construction of such improvements and receiving Federal grants to finance, in part, the cost thereof, and for the other purposes mentioned in the Governor's message.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES IN SPECIAL SESSION CONVENED:

Section 1. That at this Special Session, the House of Representatives will not consider or pass upon any laws, except bills introduced for the purpose of carrying out the objects for which the Special Session was called as hereinbefore recited, except by unanimous consent.

Resolved, by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. That the House of Representatives adopt the Rules of the previous House, with the exception of the Rule providing for Standing Committees.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Bills and resolutions are introduced, read the first time, and disposed of as follows:

By Mr. Jones:

H. R. 1. Joint Resolution informing His Excellency, Governor Clyde R. Hoey, that the Extra Session of the General Assembly is ready to proceed with public business.

On motion of Mr. Jones, the resolution is placed on its immediate passage.

Passed first reading.

Rules suspended.

Passes its second and third readings and ordered sent to the Senate without engrossment.

The Joint Committee appointed by the House and Senate, comes into the Hall of the House acting as escort to Governor Hoey, who delivers the following message to the Joint Assembly:

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Senators and Representatives:

During the past ten years economic conditions have been such that the building program for all the State institutions has been limited to the barest necessities. This present General Assembly authorized a number of new buildings provided for in a bond act in March, 1937, and $3,019,000 in bonds were issued and sold and these buildings have either been completed or are now in course of construction. Some other buildings have been obtained by grants from the Federal government and the issuance of revenue liquidating bonds and some of these projects have been finished, while other authorizations have been made and approval given, so that construction will begin on these projects at an early date.

Some of the most imperative needs of our institutions could not be met in this way, because the projects are not self-liquidating, as for instance the fireproofing of the buildings at our hospitals in Morganton, Raleigh, and Goldsboro, and other similar pressing demands from practically all of the State institutions and agencies, and hence the necessity for calling the General Assembly to convene in extra session. An enlightened and humane State could not longer neglect to make these essential provisions for the care, safety and security of its people and the next Legislature would have been confronted with the necessity of issuing bonds to pay the whole expense, while the opportunity is afforded the State now to receive by way of grants from the Federal government 45 per cent of the cost, if we act promptly and take advantage of the present appropriation, which is being rapidly allocated. The dead line for all applications is fixed in the Federal statute for September 30, 1938, with the requirement that work must be begun before January 1st, 1939. From very careful inquiry I am convinced that in order to make certain that we get the money desired our applications should be filed not later than August 15, 1938, and if you succeed in completing your work in time our applications will be filed by that date.

I am submitting to you the report and recommendations of the Advisory Budget Commission. The Commission has visited all the institutions and made personal inspection of their needs for permanent improvements. In addition to this, at my request, the Commission sat in Raleigh last week and heard the heads of these institutions and other State agencies and gave intelligent and painstaking consideration to all claim presented. After canvassing the whole situation they recommend that you authorize a bond issue in the sum of $4,620,000, which is allocated between the various claimants as set forth in their report. The total of the sums requested was over $14,000,000 for buildings and improvements, which did not include the application for highway improvement. The maximum amount of bonds that could be issued at this time under the Constitutional limitation, in addition to those previously authorized, is $5,591,237.88. The Commission's recommendations are $971,237.88 under that figure.

I recommend these matters for your consideration, viz:

1. The bond bill prepared by the Attorney General in accordance with the report and recommendations of the Advisory Budget Commission.

2. The bill prepared by the Attorney General enabling municipalities to issue revenue bonds to finance self-liquidating projects authorized therein, subject to the supervision of the Local Government Commission.

3. The question of a North Carolina Exhibit at the New York World's Fair in 1939.

As to the first measure, I did not sit with the Advisory Budget Commission, and therefore, can all the more freely commend its work to you, and I strongly recommend the enactment of the bond bill embodying its recommendations. In order to economize your time and save you the necessity of hearing all claims, the Commission spent several days engaged in that work, and while the institutions and other departments did not get all the money applied for, it will be generally agreed that an effort was made to serve the pressing needs of each. While no allotment was made for roads, the authority of the next Legislature to issue bonds was not encroached upon, so that in addition to nearly one million dollars margin unauthorized this year, the next Legislature will have a maximum of an additional $5,000,000 made possible by bond retirements this year, and I shall recommend that roads receive primary consideration when any additional bonds are issued.

I may say that immediately after this session adjourns I hope to be able to make an allocation out of the highway surplus to enable the Commission to file application for Federal funds to assist in eliminating some of the flat curves and widen some of the dangerously narrow roads. This may be possible because there has been no diversion of the highway funds for general purposes during the last fiscal year.

The second measure is necessary in order to enable municipalities to issue revenue bonds to share in the PWA funds for self-liquidating projects. The 1935 Act of the Legislature expired in 1937 and it is necessary to have renewed authority so that these local units of government may get the benefit of some of the expenditure of Federal funds for worth-while purposes. This Act has been drawn with a view of accomplishing the desired results without entering the realm of controversial action and I recommend its passage.

I do not think we should repeal the limitations placed on municipal borrowings by the general law, where it operates to create an obligation upon the taxpayers. These limitations have been wisely placed both in the Constitution and the Municipal Finance Act and should be retained. We have had experience in unrestrained spending by which many of our political sub-divisions got in default, and I do not wish a repetition of it. These provisions do not apply to the measure which will be presented, because these bonds are issued against the revenues of the project authorized, and legally do not constitute an obligation of the municipality. However, practically they create a liability because they represent a mortgage on certain resources of the municipality and when they are utilized for debt purposes the taxpayer is required to pay taxes to meet the current expenses and is deprived of the benefit of any revenue from this source. The only wise or safe policy for State or municipality is to confine the expenditures to necessary public improvements, even though the Federal government is paying a substantial part of the cost. Unnecessary spending always results in extravagance and waste.

The third measure, and the only one dealing with matters other than compliance with requirements to share in Federal funds, relates to our participation in the New York World's Fair of 1939. The Commission authorized at your last session has worked diligently and obtained donations in the sum of $22,000. The necessary space has been contracted for to provide for an outstanding exhibit. Unless you make an appropriation we cannot raise the necessary money to make the kind of an exhibit you would like for North Carolina to have and the whole proposition will fail. The next Legislature would be too late. The work will have to begin by September 1st. The total cost will be in excess of $100,000. Some additional money can be raised by private subscription, but not much. If we are to have an exhibit it would require an appropriation of $75,000. This is not a bond bill and does not require passage on separate days. Representative Fenner, who is Chairman of this Commission, will be in attendance upon the session Tuesday and will present this bill and wishes to be heard upon this matter, along with the other Legislative members of the Commission. Owing to the urgency of this matter I am asking you to give consideration to this measure. Personally I should very much regret to see North Carolina fail of representation at this greatest of all World Fairs.

I sincerely appreciate your presence here today. This Assembly is making history. I do not recall that any other Assembly has met three times within a biennium. But that is not as important to emphasize as the high quality of service which you have given the people of the State. Both former sessions have been characterized by marked efficiency and directness of effort, and your intelligent and patriotic labors have challenged the admiration of the high minded citizenship of North Carolina. The Council of State unanimously approved the convening of this Special Session and shares with me full confidence in your wisdom and foresight. Our State will have to bear a large part of the public debt incurred by the general government for these public expenditures and it is the part of wisdom and good economics to get a fair share of the appropriations to meet our essential needs. If you adopt the program outlined you will have made a definite forward movement and gone a long way toward providing the urgent necessities for State institutions and agencies. I esteem it an honor to be associated with you in the comradeship of service to our beloved Commonwealth.

CLYDE R. HOEY,
Governor of North Carolina.

This August 8th, 1938.

THE REPORT OF THE ADVISORY BUDGET COMMISSION ON PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS RECOMMENDED FOR THE STATE'S DEPARTMENTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND AGEN-CIES TO BE CONSIDERED AT THE SPECIAL SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF 1938.

To the Honorable Clyde R. Hoey, Governor of North Carolina:

The members of the Advisory Budget Commission, whose names are hereto subscribed, herewith, submit to you this report on the findings and recommendations concerning permanent improvements for the State's departments, institutions, and agencies for consideration before the special session of the General Assembly called to convene in session August 8, 1938.

VISITATION OF INSTITUTIONS

The Advisory Budget Commission just prior to consideration and recommendation of permanent improvement appropriations for the special session of 1938 visited and inspected every State institution. The needs of the institutions were examined very thoroughly and the Advisory Budget Commission has made its recommendations in the light of these visits and examinations.

HEARINGS OF DEPARTMENTS, INSTITUTIONS, AND AGENCIES

The Advisory Budget Commission convened Wednesday, August 3, in the offices of The Budget Bureau and heard each department, institution, and agency making request for permanent improvement appropriation. Every agency was given an opportunity to explain its needs, orally as well as by written statement.

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENT APPROPRIATIONS RECOMMENDED

The recent visits to the State institutions and hearings had before the Advisory Budget Commission have enabled the Commission to ascertain the needs of those agencies. In considering the requests for permanent improvement appropriations and in recommending appropriations it was found that these State agencies were modest in setting out requests for appropriations when their actual needs were known and considered. Very few agencies requested any appropriations that would not have been useful to the institution concerned and to the State as a whole in the care of its unfortunates or in the education of its children. It has been a difficult job to say that certain requests should not be granted for certain projects in view of the needs determined by visits or by conference with the agencies concerned, but the limitation on bonds that may be issued has made it necessary that recommendations be less than the requests.

In the case of the three State hospitals for insane, great necessity and special treatment presents itself because of the character of those held in the institutions. These institutions are veritable fire-traps to a large extent, and are now allowed to remain contrary to State law for buildings housing inmates who are locked within. No justification exists for allowing such conditions to remain at the State Hospital at Morganton, State Hospital at Raleigh, and the State Hospital at Goldsboro, which would result in the death of a large number of patients if a fire should break out at night, or possibly even in the day time. It would be impossible to remove the patients in a good many instances because they are bedridden and must be moved by a nurse or attendant. It seems imperative that these buildings must be fireproofed or replaced and brought within the requirements for safe housing of patients who are locked within the buildings. It is recommended to replace many of the existing buildings because they cannot be renovated because of the deterioration which literally amounts to destruction.

In the case of the other departments and institutions, the recommendations cover the most needy projects and do not cover things not absolutely necessary to carry on the work of the institution or agency.

All of the recommendations made are for purposes for which the General Assembly through necessity would be requested to make appropriations within the next two or three years, and it is deemed advisable to cover these needs as best possible while 45% may be had from the Federal government.

CONSTITUTIONAL LIMITATION ON BOND ISSUE

The Advisory Budget Commission has considered very thoroughly the amount of bonds that may be issued under the constitutional limitation, and has decided that it should not recommend bonds to be issued for the full availability. There might be conditions that would make it mandatory that other things be provided, and it is thought wise that some $971,000 be left in the availability for issuing bonds.

The following is a statement of the determination of bonds that may be issued and the result if the bonds proposed in this Act should be issued:

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

SENATE CHAMBER
August 13, 1938

Mr. Speaker:

You are respectfully advised that the business of the Senate has been concluded and will be ready to open the doors of the Senate immediately upon receipt of information from your Honorable Body that you are ready to open your doors that the gavels may fall simultaneously and adjournment declared, sine die.

Respectfully,
S. RAY BYERLY, Clerk of the Senate.

Pursuant to the information submitted above, the House of Representatives having completed the business before it, a message is ordered sent the Senate informing that Honorable Body that the House stands ready for adjournment.

The doors of the House and Senate are thrown open. The President of the Senate is perceived standing ready to let fall the gavel, the hour for adjournment fixed by Joint Resolution and passed by the two Houses having arrived, the Speaker of the House of Representatives declares the House of Representatives of the Extra Session of 1938 adjourned, sine die.

R. G. CHERRY,
Speaker of the House of Representatives

HOUSE JOURNAL

SESSION 1939

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, January 4, 1939

Be it remembered that the Constitution of the State of North Carolina fixes the date for the meeting of the General Assembly of North Carolina as being on the Wednesday after the first Monday in January, biennially, the date for this meeting being January 4, 1939.

This day, in compliance with the provisions of the Constitution, the members-elect of the House of Representatives assemble in their Hall in the City of Raleigh, and at twelve o'clock noon, are called to order by Honorable W. A. Baker, Principal Clerk of the last House.

Prayer is offered by Rev. Chauncey M. Pegram of the City of Raleigh.

The roll is called and the following members-elect answer to their names and appear with the proper certificates of election and take and subscribe to the following prescribed oath of office, which is administered by Associate Justice Wallace Winborne, of the Supreme Court:

"Do you, and each of you, solemnly and sincerely swear that you will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina and to the Constitutional powers which are or may be established for the government thereof, and that you will endeavor to support, maintain and defend the Constitution of said State not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of your knowledge and ability and that you will faithfully discharge your duties as members of the House of Representatives to the best of your ability, so help you, God."

SPECIAL REPORT OF THE RULES COMMITTEE

January 5, 1939

Mr. Speaker:

Your Committee on Rules, having met on yesterday for the purpose of formulating rules of the House of Representatives for the Session of 1939, adopted without change the Rules of the House for the Session of 1937, and presents same to the House for adoption as the Rules of the Session of 1939.

Respectfully,

F. R. SEELEY of Carteret,
Chairman of Rules Committee.

On motion of Mr. Seeley the above report is adopted.

On motion of Mr. Seeley five thousand copies are ordered printed.

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Touching the Duties of Speaker

1. It shall be the duty of the Speaker to have the sessions of the House opened with prayer.

2. He shall take the chair every day at the hour fixed by the House on the preceding legislative day, shall immediately call the members to order, and, on appearance of a quorum, cause the Journal of the preceding day to be approved.

3. He shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the House by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the House. A two-thirds vote of the members present shall be necessary to sustain any appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

4. He shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting.

5. Questions shall be put in this form, namely, "Those in favor (as the question may be) will say, 'Aye,'" and after the affirmative voice has been expressed, "Those opposed will say, 'No.'" Upon a call for a division the Speaker shall count; if required he shall appoint tellers.

6. The Speaker shall have a general direction of the hall. He shall have a right to name any member to perform the duties of the Chair, but substitution shall not extend beyond one day, except in case of sickness or by leave of the House.

7. All committees shall be appointed by the Speaker, unless otherwise specially ordered by the House.

8. In all elections the Speaker may vote. In all other cases he may exercise his right to vote, or he may reserve this right until there is a tie; but in no case shall he be allowed to vote twice on the same question.

9. All acts, addresses, and resolutions, and all warrants and subpoenas issued by order of the House shall be signed by the Speaker.

10. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobby, the Speaker or other presiding officer shall have power to order the same to be cleared.

11. No person except members of the Senate, officers and clerks of the General Assembly, Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, State officers, former members of the General Assembly, and persons particularly invited by the Speaker shall be admitted within the hall of the House: Provided, that no person except members of the Senate and officers of the General Assembly shall be allowed on the floor of the House or in the lobby in the rear of the Speaker's desk, unless permitted by the Speaker of the House.

12. Reporters wishing to take down debates may be admitted by the Speaker, who shall assign such places to them on the floor or elsewhere, to effect this object, as shall not interfere with the convenience of the House.

13. Smoking shall not be allowed in the hall, the lobbies, or the galleries while the House is in session; Provided, that smoking may be permitted in the lobby in the rear of the Speaker's desk.

ORDER OF BUSINESS OF THE DAY

14. After the approval of the Journal of the preceding day, which shall stand approved without objection, the House shall proceed to business in the following order, viz.:

(1) The receiving of petitions, memorials, and papers addressed to the General Assembly or to the House.

(2) Reports of standing committees.

(3) Reports of select committees.

(4) Resolutions.

(5) Bills.

(6) The unfinished business of the preceding day.

(7) Bills, resolutions, petitions, memorials, messages, and other papers on the Calendar, in their exact numerical order, unless displaced by the orders of the day; but messages and motions to elect officers shall always be in order.

No member shall rise from his seat to introduce any petition, resolution, or bill out of order unless he is permitted so to do by a suspension of the rules.

ON DECORUM IN DEBATE

15. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise from his seat and respectfully address the Speaker.

16. When the Speaker shall call a member to order, the member shall sit down, as also he shall when called to order by another member, unless the Speaker decides the point of order in his favor. By leave of the House a member called to order may clear a matter of fact, or explain, but shall not proceed in debate so long as the decision stands but by permission of the House. Any member may appeal from the decision of the Chair, and if, upon appeal, the decision be in favor of the member called to order, he may proceed; if otherwise, he shall not, except by leave of the House; and if the case, in the judgment of the House, require it, he shall be liable to its censure.

17. No member shall speak until recognized by the Chair, and when two or more members rise at the same time the Speaker shall name the member to speak.

18. No member shall speak more than twice on the main question, nor longer than thirty minutes for the first speech and fifteen minutes for the second speech, unless allowed to do so by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present; nor shall he speak more than once upon an amendment or motion to commit or postpone, and then not longer than ten minutes. But the House may, by consent of a majority, suspend the operations of this rule during any debate on any particular question before the House, or the Committee on Rules may bring in a special rule that shall be applicable to the debate on any bill.

19. While the Speaker is putting any question, or addressing the House, no person shall speak, stand up, walk out of or cross the House, nor when a member is speaking entertain private discourse, stand up, or pass between him and the Chair.

20. No member shall vote on any question when he was not present when the question was put by the Speaker, except by the consent of the House. Upon a division and count of the House on any question, no member without the bar shall be counted.

21. Every member who shall be in the hall of the House for the above purpose when the question is put shall give his vote upon a call of the ayes and noes, unless the House for special reasons shall excuse him, and no application to be excused from voting or to explain a vote shall be entertained unless made before the call of the roll. The hall of the House shall include the lobbies and offices connected with the hall.

22. When a motion is made it shall be stated by the Speaker or, if written, it shall be handed to the Chair and read aloud by the Speaker or Clerk before debate. A motion to table or adjourn shall be seconded before the motion is put by the Speaker to the vote of the House.

23. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker or any two members request it.

24. After a motion is stated by the Speaker or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn before a decision or amendment, except in case of a motion to reconsider, which motion, when made by a member, shall be deemed and taken to be in possession of the House, and shall not be withdrawn without leave of the House.

25. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged; and no motion to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, being decided, shall be again allowed at the same stage of the bill or proposition.

26. A motion to adjourn or lay on the table shall be decided without debate, and a motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when the House is voting or some member is speaking; but a motion to adjourn shall not follow a motion to adjourn until debate or some other business of the House has intervened.

26a. In case of adjournment without any hour being named, the House shall reconvene on the next legislative day at twelve o'clock noon.

27. When a question has been postponed indefinitely, the same shall not be acted on again during the session, except upon a two-thirds vote.

28. Any member may call for a division of the question, when the same shall admit of it, which shall be determined by the Speaker.

29. When a motion has been once made and carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member of the majority to move for the reconsideration thereof, on the same or succeeding day, unless it may have subsequently passed the Senate, and no motion to reconsider shall be taken from the table except by a two-thirds vote. But unless such vote has been taken by a call of the yeas and nays, any member may vote to reconsider.

30. When the reading of a paper is called for, which has been read in the House, and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be determined by a vote of the House.

31. Petitions, memorials, and other papers addressed to the House shall be presented by the Speaker; a brief statement of the contents thereof may be verbally made by the introducer before reference to a committee, but shall not be debated or decided on the day of their first being read, unless the House shall direct otherwise.

32. When the ayes and noes are called for on any question, it shall be on motion before the question is put; and if seconded by one-fifth of the members present, the question shall be decided by the ayes and noes; and in taking the ayes and noes, or on a call of the House, the names of the members will be taken alphabetically.

33. Decency of speech shall be observed and personal reflection carefully avoided.

34. Any member may arise at any time to speak to a question of personal privilege, and upon objection to him proceeding, the Speaker shall determine if the question is one of privilege.

35. Fifteen members, including the Speaker, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the qualified members of the House.

36. No member or officer of the House shall absent himself from the service of the House without leave, unless from sickness or inability.

37. Any member may excuse himself from serving on any committee if he is a member of two standing committees.

38. If any member shall be necessarily absent on temporary business of the House when a vote is taken upon any question, upon entering the House he shall be permitted, on request, to vote, provided that the result shall not be thereby affected.

39. No standing rule or order shall be rescinded or altered without one day's notice given on the motion thereof, and to sustain such motion two-thirds of the House shall be required.

40. The members of the House shall uncover their heads upon entering the House while it is in session, and shall continue so uncovered during their continuance in the hall, except Quakers.

41. A motion to reconsider shall be determined by a majority vote, except a motion to reconsider an indefinite postponement, or a motion to reconsider a motion tabling a motion to reconsider, which shall require a two-thirds vote.

42. After a bill has been tabled or has failed to pass on any of its readings, the contents of such bill or the principal provisions of its subject-matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. Upon the point of order being raised and sustained by the Chair, such measure shall be laid upon the table, and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the elected membership of the House: Provided, no local bill shall be held by the Chair as embodying the provisions or being identical with any State-wide measure which has been laid upon the table, or failed to pass any of its readings.

42a. A motion to table an amendment sent up from the floor shall not be construed as a motion to table the principal bill or any other amendment which has been offered thereto, and if such motion is carried, only the amendment shall lie upon the table.

42b. When a member desires to interrupt a member having the floor he shall first obtain recognition by the Chair and permission of the member occupying the floor, and when so recognized and such permission is obtained he may propound a question to the member occupying the floor, but he shall not propound a series of questions or interrogatories or otherwise interrupt the member having the floor; and the Speaker shall, without the point of order being raised, enforce this rule.

Standing Committees

43. At the commencement of the session a standing committee shall be appointed by the Speaker on each of the following subjects, namely:

- On Agriculture.
- On Appropriations.
- On Banks and Banking.
- On Commercial Fisheries.
- On Congressional Districts.
- On Conservation and Development.
- On Constitutional Amendments.
- On Corporations.
- On Counties, Cities, and Towns.
- On Courts and Judicial Districts.
- On Drainage.
- On Education.
- On Elections and Election Laws.
- On Engrossed Bills.
- On Expenditures of the House.
- On Federal Relations.
- On Finance.
- On Game.
- On Health.

On Higher Education.
On Insane Asylums.
On Institutions for the Blind.
On Institutions for the Deaf and Dumb.
On Insurance.
On the Journal.
On Judiciary, No. 1.
On Judiciary, No. 2.
On Manufactures and Labor.
On Military Affairs.
On Oyster Industry.
On Penal Institutions.
On Pensions.
On Propositions and Grievances.
On Public Utilities.
On Public Welfare.
On Roads.
On Rules.
On Salaries and Fees.
On Senatorial Districts.
On Unemployment Compensation.

Joint Committees

On Enrolled Bills.
On Justices of the Peace.
On Library.
On Printing.
On Public Buildings and Grounds.
On Trustees of University.

The first member announced on each committee shall be chairman.

43a. Whenever the House shall decline or refuse to concur in amendments put by the Senate to a bill originating in the House, or shall refuse to adopt a substitute adopted by the Senate for a bill originating in the House, a conference committee shall be appointed upon motion made, consisting of the number named in the motion; and the bill under consideration shall thereupon go to and be considered by the joint conferees on the part of the House and Senate. In considering matters in difference between the House and Senate committed to the conferees only such matters as are in difference between the two houses shall be considered by the conferees, and the conference report shall deal only with such matters. The conference report shall not be amended. Except as herein set out, the rules of the House of Representatives of Congress shall govern the appointment, conduct, and reports of the conferees.

44. In forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave the Chair and a Chairman to preside in committee shall be appointed by the Speaker.

45. Upon bills submitted to a Committee of the Whole House, the bill shall be first read throughout by the Clerk, and then again read and debated by sections, leaving the preamble to be last considered. The body of the bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments, noting the page and line, shall be duly entered by the Clerk on a separate paper as the same shall be agreed to by the committee, and so reported to the House. After report, the bill shall again be subject to be debated and amended by sections before a question on its passage be taken.

46. The rules of procedure in the House shall be observed in a Committee of the Whole House, so far as they may be applicable, except the rule limiting the time of speaking and the previous question.

47. In a Committee of the Whole House a motion that the committee rise shall always be in order, except when a member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

48. Every bill shall be introduced by motion for suspension of the rules, or by order of the House, or on the report of a committee, unless introduced in regular order during the morning hour.

49. All bills and resolutions shall be reported from the committee to which referred, with such recommendations as the committee may desire to make.

50. Every bill shall receive three several readings in the House previous to its passage, and the Speaker shall give notice at each whether it be its first, second, or third reading.

51. Any member introducing a bill or resolution shall briefly endorse thereon the substance of the same.

52. All bills and resolutions shall upon their introduction be referred by the Speaker, without suggestion from the introducer, to the appropriate committee. No bills shall be withdrawn from the committee to which referred except upon motion duly made and carried by a majority vote.

53. The Clerk of the House shall keep a separate calendar of the public, local, and private bills, and shall number them in the order in which they are introduced, and all bills shall be disposed of in the order they stand upon the Calendar; but the Committee on Rules may at any time arrange the order of precedence in which bills may be considered. No bill shall be twice read on the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members.

54. All resolutions which may grant money out of the Treasury, or such as shall be of public nature, shall be treated in all respects in a similar manner with public bills.

55. The Clerk of the House shall be deemed to continued in office until another is appointed.

56. On the point of no quorum being raised, the doors shall be closed and there shall be a call of the House, and upon a call of the House the names of the members shall be called over by the Clerk and the absentees noted, after which the names of the absentees shall again be called over. Those for whom no excuse or sufficient excuses are made may, by order of those present, if fifteen in number, be taken into custody as they appear, or may be sent for and taken into custody wherever to be found by special messenger appointed for that purpose.

Previous Question

57. The previous question shall be as follows: "Shall the main question be now put?" and, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments and debate. If this question shall be decided in the affirmative, the "main question" shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution, or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be taken upon such amendments, in inverse order, without further debate or amendment. If such question be decided in the negative, the main question shall be considered as remaining under debate: Provided, that no one shall move the previous question except the member submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration, and the member introducing the bill or other matter under consideration, or the member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the chairman of the committee reporting the same to the House at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the House or taken up for consideration.

When a motion for the previous question is made, and pending the second thereto by a majority, debate shall cease; but if any member obtains the floor, he may move to lay the matter under consideration on the table, or move an adjournment, and when both or either of these motions are pending the question shall stand:

- (1) Previous question.
- (2) To adjourn.
- (3) To lay on the table.

And then upon the main question, or amendments, or the motion to postpone indefinitely, postpone to a day certain, to commit, or amend, in the order of their precedence, until the main question is reached or disposed of; but after the previous question has been called by a majority, no motion, or amendment, or debate shall be in order.

All motions below the motions to lay on the table must be made prior to a motion for the previous question; but, pending and not after the second therefor, by the majority of the House, a motion to adjourn or lay on the table, or both, are in order. This constitutes the precedence of the motions to adjourn and lay on the table over other motions, in Rule 25.

Motions stand as follows in order of precedence in Rule 26:

- Previous question.
- Adjourn.
- Lay on the table.
- Postpone definitely.
- To commit or amend.

When the previous question is called, all motions below it fall, unless made prior to the call, and all motions above it fall after its second by a majority required. Pending the second, the motions to adjourn and lay on the table are in order, but not after a second. When in order and every motion is before the House, the question stands as follows:

Previous question.

Adjourn.

Lay on the table.

Postpone indefinitely.

Postpone definitely.

To commit.

Amendment to amendment.

Amendment.

Substitute.

Bill.

The previous question covers all other motions when seconded by a majority of the House, and proceeds by regular debate, amendment, or motion, until such question is reached or disposed of.

58. All committees, other than the Committee on Appropriations, when favorably reporting any bill which carries an appropriation from the State, shall indicate same in the report, and said bill shall be re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations for a further report before being acted upon by the House. All committees, other than the Committee on Finance, when favorably reporting any bill which in any way or manner raises revenue or levies a tax or authorizes the issue of bonds or notes, whether public, public-local, or private, shall indicate same in the report, and said bill shall be re-referred to the Committee on Finance for a further report before being acted upon by the House.

59. The Principal Clerk, the Engrossing Clerk, and the Sergeant-at-Arms may appoint, with the approval of the Speaker, such assistants as may be necessary to the efficient discharge of the duties of their various offices, and one or more of whom may be assigned by the Speaker from the Engrossing Clerk's office to the office of the Legislative Reference Librarian for the purpose of drafting bills.

60. The Speaker may appoint a Clerk to the Speaker, and he may also appoint ten pages to wait upon the sessions of the House, and when the pressure of business may require, he may appoint five additional pages.

61. The Chairman of each of the following committees: Agriculture, Appropriations, Banks and Banking, Counties, Cities, and Towns, Courts and Judicial Districts, Education, Elections and Election Laws, Finance, Higher Education, Insurance, Judiciary No. 1, Judiciary No. 2, Manufactures and Labor, Propositions and Grievances, Public Welfare, Roads, Salaries and Fees, and Unemployment Compensation, may each appoint a clerk to the said committee. All committee Clerks heretofore provided for are to be appointed by and with the approval of the Speaker. With the exception of the Clerks appointed to Appropriations and Finance, the clerks to all the other above-named committees, when not on duty with their specific committee, shall report to and be under the supervision of the Principal Clerk of the House for assignment to special duty with other committees and to serve the convenience of the members of the House.

62. That no clerk, laborer, or other person employed or appointed under Rules 59, 60, and 61 hereof shall receive during such employment, appointment, or service any compensation from any other department of the State Government, or from any other source, and there shall not be voted, paid, or awarded any additional pay, bonus or gratuity to any of them, but said persons shall receive only the pay for such duties and services as now provided by law. When the House is not in session the pages shall be under the supervision of the Principal Clerk.

63. The chairman and five other members of any committee shall constitute a quorum of said committee for the transaction of business.

64. The Committee on the Journal shall examine daily the Journal of the House before the hour of convening, and report after the opening of the House whether or not the proceedings of the previous day have been correctly recorded.

65. When a bill shall be reported by a committee with a recommendation that it be not passed, but accompanied by a minority report, the question before the House shall be "The adoption of the minority report," and if failing to be adopted by a majority vote, the bill shall be placed upon the unfavorable calendar. Such minority report shall be signed by at least three members of the committee who were present when the bill was considered in committee: Provided, however, that where a minority report is filed the proponents and opponents of the question presented thereby shall be allowed not to exceed ten minutes on each side to explain the question: Provided, further, that by a majority vote the time may be extended for a discussion of the minority report and on the merits of the bill. In the event there is an unfavorable report with no minority report accompanying it, the bill shall be placed upon the unfavorable calendar. To take a bill from the unfavorable calendar, a two-thirds vote shall be necessary.

65a. A bill from the unfavorable calendar shall not be debatable, but the movant may make a brief and concise statement of the reasons for the motion before making the motion, taking not more than five minutes.

66. Whenever a public bill is introduced a carbon copy thereof shall accompany the bill. The Reading Clerk shall stamp the copy with the number stamped upon the original bill. Such copy shall be daily delivered to the joint committee hereinafter provided for. The Principal Clerk shall deliver the carbon copy of the bills designated to be printed, as hereinafter provided for, to the Public Printer and cause four hundred copies thereof to be printed. On the morning following the delivery of the printed copies the Chief Clerk shall cause the chief page to have one copy thereof put upon the desk of each member and shall retain the other printed copies in his office. A sufficient number of the printed copies for the use of the committee to which the bill is referred shall be by the chief page delivered to the chairman or clerk of that committee. If the bill is passed, the remaining copies shall be by the chief page delivered to the Principal Clerk of the Senate for the use of the Senate. The cost of printing shall be paid from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives. The Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House and the Chairman of the Rules Committee of the Senate shall appoint a sub-committee consisting of two members of the House and two members of the Senate from the body of the House and Senate, and such chairman shall notify the Principal Clerk of the House and of the Senate who has been so appointed. Such sub-committee shall meet daily and examine the carbon copies of the public bills introduced and determine which of such public bills shall be printed and which shall not, and stamp the copies accordingly. Such sub-committee shall serve for one week unless for good cause the chairmen of the respective rules committees shall determine otherwise. If the member introducing a public bill, which the committee shall determine should not be printed, so desires, he may appear before the committee at the next meeting thereof with reference thereto.

67. Whenever any resolution or bill is introduced a carbon copy thereof shall be attached thereto, and the Principal Clerk shall cause said carbon copy to be numbered as the original resolution or bill is numbered, and shall cause the same to be available at all times to the member introducing the same. In case the resolution or bill is a public resolution or bill, an additional carbon copy shall also be attached thereto for the use of the Public Printer, under the provisions of Rule 66.

Courtesies of the floor are extended to Mrs. E. L. McKee of Jackson County, former State Senator.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following message is received from the Senate:

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

A message is received from the Governor, transmitting the budget, which message is ordered spread upon the Journal, and a copy thereof is referred to the Committee on Finance.

BUDGET MESSAGE

OF

GOVERNOR CLYDE R. HOEY

TO THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA

To the Honorable, The General Assembly of North Carolina:

I have the honor to transmit herewith the proposed Budget for the biennium July 1, 1939, to June 30, 1941, fiscal years 1939-40, and 1940-41. The Budget Report will be found on pages XX to XXVIII inclusive, which gives a summary of the recommendations and a condensed statement of proposed revenues and expenditures. This report also sets forth some of the reasons for the recommendations.

Along with the Budget I am forwarding for consideration by your Honorable Body the Budget Appropriation Bill and the Budget Revenue Bill, and the Machinery Act. You will observe that neither of these measures make any provision for new expenditures that would be necessary if the twelfth grade is provided or retirement fund established. The Commission has not sought to anticipate the action of the General Assembly with regard to either.

The members of the Advisory Budget Commission have given patient and intelligent consideration to all of the matters embraced in this report, and it represents their considered judgment after a full investigation into the claims and needs of the various institutions, departments and causes, and also the probable revenues to be realized from the measure proposed for your consideration.

You will discover that the tax measure proposed contains only a few changes from the present law, and they are comparatively unimportant. The Commission did not think it wise to propose a general increase in taxes and I fully share that view. However, unless the present provision is continued which makes it possible to apply the sales tax to gasoline for the general fund, if needed, it will be necessary to find additional revenue by levying new taxes or increasing the rates now in effect. The reason is clear. You cannot take the risk of having a deficit unless some cushion is provided, otherwise you might find the State seriously embarrassed in mid-biennium.

The objection to levying more taxes is two-fold: first, it is extremely difficult to levy additional taxes without doing an injustice to already burdened tax-payers; and second, if business should develop satisfactorily the new taxes will not be necessary. It is never justifiable to collect taxes from the public except to meet the absolute needs, and the accumulation of too large a surplus is an incentive to extravagance.

The advantage of the provision of the present law is that no part of the sales tax as applied to gasoline will be transferred to the general fund unless it is absolutely necessary to meet the appropriations, if and when the general fund should become exhausted. This obviates the necessity for levying and collecting unnecessary taxes, and at the same time provides a sure method of protecting the State's credit.

You will be urged to repeal certain taxes upon the ground that some other States do not levy them. It should be borne in mind that those States do not provide public service in any wise comparable to that made available to the people of North Carolina. Our State provides an eight months school term for every district, while in these other States the burden of maintaining the school system rests largely upon the counties and municipalities. Here over 68 cents out of each dollar from the general fund goes to schools. These taxes in North Carolina are not made necessary by the expenses of administering government, but rather because of expenditures made for the public benefit in schools and similar services.

I need not emphasize the necessity of providing for a balanced budget. No appropriations should be made beyond the available funds to be realized from dependable sources of revenue.

I commit this important subject of legislation to your earnest consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
CLYDE R. HOEY
Governor.

January 9, 1939.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

The following House Resolution is offered by Mr. Murphy, which is adopted:

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO ALEXANDER LASSITER

Whereas, this House has learned of the physical affliction of Alexander Lassiter, late Chief Clerk of this House, and for years one of its officials, who by reason of his infirmities has suffered the loss of both legs by amputation; Now, therefore,

Be It Resolved By The House of Representatives:

SECTION 1. That this House of Representatives expresses to him in his hour of distress and affliction, its sincerest sympathy, and at the same time presents him with its regards for his past performances and services to the State of North Carolina and the General Assembly of the State, in the discharge of the duties of the office of Chief Clerk of the lower House, which office he filled with credit, ability, satisfaction and discretion.

SEC. 2. That a copy of this resolution be sent to Alexander Lassiter at Aulander, North Carolina.

The following House Resolution is offered by Mr. McBryde, which is referred to the Committee on Banks and Banking:

A RESOLUTION TO REQUEST THE NORTH CAROLINA DELEGATION IN CONGRESS TO INTERCEDE FOR REDUCTION OF INTEREST CHARGES BY THE FEDERAL LAND BANK

Whereas, the farmers in North Carolina who have borrowed money from the Federal Land Bank are in real need of any assistance and relief that can be afforded them in reducing interest charges on loans; and

Whereas, money borrowed by the Federal Government for the purpose of making Land Bank loans carries an interest rate much lower than the interest rate which the bank charges farmers; and

Whereas, the said farmer-borrowers should be entitled to the benefits of the low interest rates at which the Federal Government is able to borrow money; Now, therefore,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives:

SECTION 1. That the North Carolina Representatives in the Congress of the United States be, and they are hereby requested to intercede, promote and work for the reduction of Federal Land Bank interest rates.

SEC. 2. That this Resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

The following House Resolution is offered by Mr. Murphy, which is adopted:

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO DAVID M. BUCK

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives:

SECTION 1. This House has learned with unfeigned sorrow and deep regret of the untimely passing of our late colleague, the Honorable David M. Buck of the County of Yancey. Dave Buck was one of the finest characters, the most devoted servants that the people of North Carolina, through his County, ever sent to the General Assembly of North Carolina. He was often a member of this body, and in its deliberations exhibited a devotion to duty and a performance of his trust rarely equalled, and never surpassed by any of its members. In life, and all of its contacts, he exhibited those qualities which endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. Honest, high-minded, devoted to duty and its performance, courageous, sincere and faithful, he was an ideal Representative.

In his untimely passing, we desire, as his colleagues, to express to those near and dear to him our unfeigned sorrow and try to express our appreciation of him as a man and a servant of his people. He now sleeps in "sweet peace eternal," underneath the shadows of the hills back in his mountain land, there to await his final summons, which, in our opinion, will be accompanied by the salutation, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of our Lord."

SEC. 2. That a copy of this resolution be sent to his bereaved family, and a copy also be spread upon the Journals of this House.

On motion of Mr. Graham of Robeson, H. B. 414, a bill to be entitled An act to create and establish the Fairmont Administrative Unit and providing for the administration and control thereof, is recalled from the Enrolling Office.

SPECIAL MESSAGE

SENATE CHAMBER,
March 25, 1939.

Mr. Speaker:

Pursuant to your notice that the House has failed to concur in the Senate amendment to H. B. 320, entitled "Authorizing cities and towns having a population of more than five thousand to adopt ordinances relating to the repair, closing and demolition of dwellings unfit for human habitation; and providing for the remedies and procedure in connection with action taken under such ordinances," the request for a conference, and appointment of Conferees on the part of the House, the President has appointed as Conferees on the part of the Senate, Senators Bellamy and Ballentine, to the end that the differences existing between the two Houses may be adjusted.

Respectfully,

S. RAY BYERLY,
Principal Clerk.

CONFERENCE REPORT

To the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned Conferees on the Senate and the House of Representatives, in adjusting the differences arising between the two Bodies in House Bill 890 entitled "An Act Relating to the Salary of the Assistant Clerk of the Superior Court of Columbus County," beg leave to report the following:

We recommend that both Houses pass in lieu of Senate amendment, an amendment of Sections 1 and 2 of the act, to strike out all of said Sections, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. That the assistant or deputy Clerk of the Superior Court of Columbus County may, at the option and with the approval of the Board of Commissioners of said county, be paid a salary of not less than twelve hundred dollars ($1200.00) and not in excess of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500.00) per year, payable monthly, from the general funds of the county.

Sec. 2. That the Clerk of the Superior Court of Columbus County may from time to time, employ, upon approval of the County Commissioners, such additional clerk help as may be required to properly perform the duties of his office."

Respectfully submitted,

K. C. COUNCIL,

S. B. FRINK,

Conferees on the part of the Senate.

R. B. MALLARD,

W. D. HOLOMAN,

LARRY I. MOORE, JR.,

Conferees on the part of the House of Representatives.

On motion of Mr. Mallard the Conference Report is adopted, and the Senate is so notified to the end that if they adopt a similar report the House may order the bill enrolled.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following message is received from the Senate:

SENATE CHAMBER,
April 4, 1939.

Mr. Speaker:

You are respectfully advised that the business of the Senate has been concluded and that body will be ready to open the doors of the Senate immediately upon receipt of information from your Honorable Body that you are ready to open your doors, that the gavels may fall simultaneously and adjournment may be declared sine die.

Respectfully,

S. RAY BYERLY,
Clerk of the Senate.

Pursuant to the information submitted above, the House of Representatives having completed the business before it, a message is ordered sent to the Senate informing that Honorable Body that the House stands ready for adjournment.

The doors of the House and the Senate are thrown open; the President of the Senate is perceived standing, ready to let fall the gavel, the hour for adjournment fixed by Joint Resolution and passed by the two Houses having arrived, the Speaker of the House of Representatives declares the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of North Carolina, Session of 1939, adjourned sine die.

D. L. WARD,
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Session 1939

W. A. BAKER,
Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives
Session 1939

APPENDIX

INAUGURAL MESSAGE

OF

GOVERNOR CLYDE R. HOEY

TO THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA

January 5, 1939

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the General Assembly:

I welcome you to the high task of legislating for three and a half million people. It is a great responsibility and carries with it a correspondingly great opportunity. It is not my purpose to submit for your consideration any mandatory measures. Neither shall I identify any particular bill as forbidden, but rather it will please me to give you my sincere views about any or all of the measures of public importance and seek to collaborate with you in an effort to reach a determination that will best serve our state. I shall be very frank in the discussion of public questions, because I have definite ideas as to what course should be pursued. Those opinions have not been formed hastily, but after mature consideration and with due regard to all the elements entering into our situation, and solely with a view of advancing the best interests of the whole citizenship of North Carolina.

State Building Program

We have made definite progress in the past two years. Our growth and advancement have been continuous during the present century, but there has been a determined purpose on the part of this state to go forward in these recent years and as a result we now have under way the greatest building program ever undertaken in all the history of the State. It touches every educational and benevolent institution and many departments of government and will provide added facilities and opportunities in each, and relieve much of the congestion previously existing and make it possible for more people to get the benefit of institutional care and treatment without the excessively long delays in admission. This does not mean that facilities will be ample to meet the needs, but great improvement will result from constructing these new buildings and providing additional equipment. This building program will extend throughout the year 1939 and will be completed in 1940. This new construction does not represent an extravagant outlay in expenditures, but has been confined to essential needs for a growing State and limited to such purposes as would have been necessary even though no federal assistance had been available.

The only bond issue on the part of the State was the $4,620,000 authorized by the special session last August. These bonds were sold in October at the lowest rate of interest ever obtained by this State—2.07 per cent—and bought by North Carolina bankers. This was a fine tribute to the high standing of the State and its unexcelled credit rating. It is your responsibility, as well as mine, to maintain this good record and keep our budget balanced.

Appropriations and Tax Reduction

At the very threshold of this session you are confronted with the insistent demand for increased appropriations and enlarged governmental service for the numerous causes and agencies ministering to the people in the realm of governmental activity. Without opposing these demands and partially admitting some of the needs, another group is urgently insisting upon a reduction of taxes generally, and a modification of some particular taxes now in effect, and expressing very definite opposition to the levying of new taxes or increasing any of the levies now existing. It is perfectly manifest that you cannot satisfy both groups. Candor compels me to say that you cannot reduce the present taxes, and this includes sales tax, if you are to continue the present governmental service, without any increase except the normal and natural growth of the public schools and other institutions and agencies serving the people. The last legislature exempted the basic food articles from the sales tax and it would be most pleasing to make other exemptions and to reduce the rate, but it will be found to be impossible unless you shall reduce, rather than increase, school facilities.

Some people have been misled by the surplus in the general fund which amounted to $5,949,144 on June 30th, 1938. Unfortunately most of that surplus will be required to meet the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1939, since revenues have decreased considerably and will be decidedly less than last year. We will do well to close this fiscal year with a reasonable working surplus. Others have suggested that economies might be instituted in State government to save enough to enable taxes to be reduced. I am heartily in favor of effecting economies in every way possible not to do injustice to those who work for the State, but frankly I cannot see where any great saving can be made in the administration of State government. At present it requires less than five cents out of each tax dollar to pay the cost of government, which includes collecting the taxes, and if this was blotted out entirely you still would not have enough Revenue to meet appropriations without the sales tax. I do not think you would be justified in reducing the small salaries paid teachers in either the public schools or our educational institutions. Today 68 cents out of each tax dollar in the general fund goes to schools and the money is not extravagantly spent on administrative cost, for the teacher gets 82 cents out of each school dollar, whereas the average for the nation is only 70 cents out of each school dollar. The other 18 cents in North Carolina covers administration, lights, fuel, water, transportation, equipment and other necessary school expenses.

You will be aided in your work during this session by the valuable and illuminating studies made by the various commissions authorized by the last General Assembly, and also the well considered reports and recommendations of the several departments of government, all of which will be transmitted to you. It will not be possible for me to review the recommendations of the commissions in this message, but I commend to you a careful study of each report and full consideration of the intelligent and helpful discussions contained therein.

Education

I continue to regard popular education as the basic need of our people. We can achieve only as we know, and we must improve the condition of the masses of the people and that can only be accomplished through education. The public school is the college and the university for over seventy-five per cent of the children of the State and this university must be made continuously more efficient. It is gratifying to record the definite progress over a period of years and the resultant improvement since the establishment of the uniform eight months term supported by the State. The providing of free school books in the elementary grades has reflected most beneficial results and the enlarged program of vocational training is meeting with enthusiastic response from students and the school patrons.

What should be the next step? Definitely a twelfth grade should be provided. There are only six states now that do not have the twelfth grade. North Carolina ought not continue in that number. The Educational Commission very wisely recommends that it be gradually adopted by adding another grade in the elementary school to embrace eight grades, and thus have the remaining four grades in high school. This would require four years for the full adoption of the twelfth grade and would provide a most practical as well as economical method of installing it. The result will be better preparation for the one fourth of the students who graduate from High School and go to college, and a broader foundation and fuller preparation for the duties of life for the other three-fourths who will not be privileged to attend college.

You ask what about teachers salary? That is an important subject and one that should engage your serious thought. So great has been the increase in enrollment in the public schools that the addition of 350 teachers has been required this year without any increase in the teacher load. You can understand this when I remind you that North Carolina ranks twelfth in population in the nation but eighth in the number of children of school age. By reason of the number of teachers who have raised their certificates to higher grades and the increments which accrue with seniority, together with the added number of teachers required, the public school expenditures will be increased around three million dollars for the biennium. There is only one recommendation that I have to make in this connection and that is that we should provide for increments to be extended for a ten year period instead of eight, which would mean the adding of two years. This would result in a practical restoration of the predepression salary schedule for such teachers as qualified under the higher brackets, and would be a substantial encouragement to a worthy and faithful group of public servants who have labored courageously during a trying period for inadequate compensation.

Another thing that seems to me worthy of consideration is the payment of the teachers salary in twelve equal installments instead of eight. So many teachers throughout the State have discussed this matter with me and they have a desperately hard time in saving enough in eight months to last during the four vacation months. The only objection from any source is that it might be regarded that they were being paid for twelve months and therefore could be called upon for more than eight months service without extra pay. There is nothing whatsoever to this view. The salary and contract would be for eight months, but as a matter of detail the sum total would be paid in twelve installments and there would be no confusion or complication about it. The teacher would be just as free for the unoccupied four months as under the present arrangement. This would probably simplify the financing for nearly all of the teachers.

Higher Education

Our institutions of higher learning are filled to capacity. A great building program increases the need for maintenance. They are bearing aloft the banner of learning and have dedicated themselves in a fine way to the high task of bringing knowledge to the feet of service. They are torch-bearers for the development of a finer state. The state is confronted with the necessity of calling upon students attending these institutions to make a larger contribution in the form of tuition charges, as much as we may regret that course. This is not out of line with all other institutions of learning, even those heavily endowed have found it necessary to make higher tuition charges. This would now seem to be essential to aid in meeting increased cost of maintenance. Even then North Carolina is making a most substantial investment in every student who graduates from any of her institutions.

When the present building program is completed every North Carolinian will have cause to be proud of the provision made at the various educational institutions for increased service. The magnitude of the program can be visualized when I tell you that the Greater University of North Carolina, at the units in Chapel Hill, Raleigh and Greensboro, will have around thirty new buildings or projects when the work is finished. Somewhat similar provision has been made—as far as circumstances would permit—for the other colleges at Culowhee, Boone and Greenville and for the charitable institutions.

Looking ahead you will soon face the problem of devising some plan of coordination so that these colleges will not enter the field of graduate work and duplicate the service provided at the University in its separate units. The very able Commission on Education might well be continued to study college education in line with the valuable study already made of the public schools.

Negro Education

The State provides an eight months school for the negro race in every school district in the state. There are five negro colleges maintained by the State. The teachers in the public schools for negroes do not receive as high salary as the teachers in the white schools, but that is explainable in a measure by the fact that requirements for certificates are not as rigid and do not demand the same standard of learning. This is being adjusted and improved and the leaders of the race who are familiar with the State educational set-up realize that it requires time and effort to work this out on an equitable and just basis of preparation and training.

The two largest negro colleges are the North Carolina College for Negroes at Durham and the A. & T. College for Negroes at Greensboro. Both are doing good work as are also the other three colleges at Fayetteville, Winston-Salem and Elizabeth City. The colleges at Durham and Greensboro ought not to do too much duplication work. They should be related somewhat on the same basis for the negro race as the University at Chapel Hill and State College in Raleigh are for the white race. We have no provision for the education of negroes in special courses of law, pharmacy or medicine. Because it is our duty as a state to make such provision and in harmony with the Supreme Court decision in the Missouri case, I recommend that such courses as deemed necessary and essential be established at the college in Durham. If added courses are required in agriculture or technology they should be provided at the A. & T. College at Greensboro. The new building already authorized will simplify this work. My investigation leads me to believe that this arrangement can be made without the expenditure of a very large sum of money. North Carolina does not believe in social equality between the races, and will not tolerate mixed schools for the races, but we do believe in equality of opportunity in their respective fields of service, and the white race cannot afford to do less than simple justice to the negro.

I rejoice in the progress of the negro race and am happy to see the amicable relations between the races in North Carolina. Every good citizen wishes to see both races improve and advance. There is no need for friction and no occasion for racial conflicts. We understand each other in the South and we can work out our destiny in a spirit of consideration and understanding. We believe in race integrity rather than race amalgamation; in race pride rather than race prejudice; in race development rather than race association. I can say without any sort of reservation that the negro does get justice in our courts. If the controversy is between a white man and a negro, and there is any evidence of the white man oppressing the negro, the jury invariably sees to it that the negro gets a square deal. In all cases in prison seeking clemency the color of the skin has nothing to do with the determination of the case. No person, white or black, is permitted to suffer or die at the hands of the law upon any charge until there has been a full and complete investigation into every detail of the case.

Benevolent Institutions

A survey of the institutions comprehended under the title of benevolent reveals the far flung activities of the state. More than 7,000 persons are receiving attention in the hospitals for mental cases at Morganton, Raleigh, Kinston and Goldsboro. Extensive improvements are under way in the physical plants at each unit and methods are being adopted with a view to increasing the attention given to new cases and personal care to be provided for all cases offering hope of mind restoration. More physicians are needed to give sufficient study and treatment to each case so that every measure possible may be adopted to effect a cure. Cured cases make it possible for the admittance of others who need the treatment and cannot be accepted for lack of room.

The new addition to the Western Sanatorium at Black Mountain has been completed and already there are more tubercular cases than can possibly be accommodated. The parent institution at Sanatorium has a long waiting list.

Time will not suffice to mention the various schools for deaf, dumb and blind; the correctional institutions for boys of both races and for girls and women of the white—and the need for such an institution for the girls of the negro race; the welfare agencies serving broadly in the field of helpfulness in school, institutions, prisons and throughout the state. We can truthfully point to a real advance in the facilities being provided at all of these institutions.

Election Reforms

Fair elections should be guaranteed to the citizenship of North Carolina as fully as legislative provisions can make that result possible. The human equation must always be considered and we can have elections just as fair as we have the will to carry into effect the law. The morality of our people is involved and we owe it to ourselves to see to it that the primary and general elections afford the opportunity of recording honestly and fairly the will of the electorate as expressed at the ballot box. I believe election laws should be uniform all over the state and a good beginning for improving the situation would be a new registration in every county, with provision for registration by mail when necessary. The removal of names accumulated during the past 30 years would deny the opportunity for fraudulent absentee voting. The dividing of large precincts would facilitate voting and reduce irregularities and better regulations for markers would aid in preventing fraud. Other safeguards can and should be provided.

I am fully aware of the demand for the repeal of the absentee ballot law. If I did not believe that the defects in this law could be remedied I would join in that demand. But I am quite sure that an absentee ballot law can be drawn that will be as free from fraud as any other part of the election machinery, and hence I am opposed to denying the right to vote to people who are sick and unable to go to the polls or who are unavoidably absent from home on election day. Forty of the forty-eight states have the absentee ballot law and I am unwilling to admit that the people of North Carolina are not as honest as those of the other forty states. The law can be so framed as to prevent racketeering in absentee ballots and the possibility of wholesale fraud in procuring them, and at the same time preserve the right of the citizen to its legitimate use. I am in favor of that kind of an absentee ballot law and I urge its adoption.

The Problem of Crime

The increasing prison population presents a real problem requiring the thoughtful consideration of the people of North Carolina. When the State assumed full control of all prisoners serving sentences of thirty days and longer the total number of prisoners was 7633 on January 31, 1934. The number now is 9871. Between nineteen and twenty thousand persons pass through the prison in a year. More persons are being arrested and convicted than formerly and then more prisoners are returning to serve second and third sentences. A determined effort is being made through religious teaching, educational instruction and proper discipline to improve the status of persons in prison so that when they are released they will have new interests, higher ideals and better conceptions of the duties of citizenship. The parole office is doing magnificent work in reviewing the cases of prisoners, investigating their records, rewarding good conduct and right attitudes and translating the good work done by the helpful agencies in the prison into rehabilitated human lives, and following up their release by aiding them to secure jobs and giving them that character of supervision that will help them to go straight. I believe definitely in parole. The record justifies my faith. Paroles are revoked promptly when there is failure to comply with the conditions, and it has been necessary to revoke less than ten per cent of those granted. Of the 1413 now on parole less than eight per cent are unemployed and the average wages earned by those employed is $41.20 per month, which amounts to $643,800 per year.

The new agency of probation has been in operation for just a little over a year and fine results have already been achieved. Probation deals with first offenders or such as are deemed worthy of a trial before being incarcerated in prison; parole deals with those persons in prison who are deemed worthy of a trial on the outside. I likewise have great faith in probation and in the short time this system has been in effect 1355 persons have been placed on probation instead of a direct sentence to prison, and they also have a good record for earnings. Less than eight per cent of these have had to be revoked.

The public is entitled to protection. Criminals must be apprehended and punished, but the problem has not been solved when you arrest, convict and sentence the violator. Sooner or later he is coming out of prison and back to society. The great trouble arises from repeaters, who not alone swell the prison population but develop into hardened criminals. I can promise you that we are endeavoring to put into practice the best methods known to criminologists and directed by enlightened thought on the prison problem to help this situation, but the public has a high responsibility to assist in this work. The obligation of the public arises when the prisoner serves his term and is released. If he stays out of prison he must have a job and an opportunity to get in a proper environment. If the civic clubs or churches of every community would provide a proper representative who could be notified by the prison authorities when a person is released from that county, and these organizations would then see the person who has been released and help him find a job and aid him in getting rehabilitated, you will solve the problem of a return to prison in the vast majority of cases.

The Needs of Agriculture

Agriculture is still the basic industry of our state since over half of our people live on the farm and are engaged in farming. We have made some progress in the diversification of crops, in conserving and enriching the soil by crop rotation, lime treatment and legume crops, but we have much yet to do. We are still so thoroughly committed to the so-called money crops that it is difficult for us to get away from cotton and tobacco. This is understandable, for with all of our shortcomings in agriculture, the fact remains that North Carolina stands third among the states of the union in the value of her cash crops—surpassed only by California and Texas. In 1938 our tobacco crop amounted to more than the cotton crop of the empire of Texas and was equal to one-third in value of the wheat crop of the nation—and wheat is a national crop. In cattle, stock, hogs and poultry we are far behind. We are also lagging in growing food crops and food supplies that would enable us to live at home. Traveling over the state you are impressed with the scarcity of cows in the rich tobacco counties. If every family, tenant and land owner, could be supplied with cows, hogs and poultry, and then supplemented with a good garden and canning facilities to provide food for the winter season, North Carolina would increase speedily her agricultural wealth and practically eliminate pellagra, from which over 2000 people die in this state every year, and it results from lack of proper food.

In addition to what I have already said it is my view that the greatest need of agriculture today is better marketing facilities for crops, other than tobacco and cotton, and plants located at strategic points in the state where the farmer could sell anything he grows or raises on the farm from a chicken to a drove of steers and from a bushel of potatoes to a car load of fish and get the market price for his products. Three or four large refrigerating plants in different sections of the state would aid tremendously and any city taking the initiative in this undertaking would build a very sure foundation for its own enduring prosperity. The other special need is for more research work to find other and more profitable uses for the things we grow in such abundance in North Carolina.

With the saving of our soil from erosion and increasing its fertility and productivity we can convert this state into a veritable garden, and we can establish agriculture upon a permanent and profitable basis when we utilize the practical things about us and apply our own common sense and intelligence to solving our individual problems, and rely upon the government for assistance in the things we cannot do for ourselves. There is still more in the man than there is in the land, but we have both and hence we must succeed.

The Road Question

North Carolina is thoroughly road conscious. Eighteen years ago we began the construction of a state system of hard surfaced highways connecting all the county seats and principal towns of the one hundred counties of the state. We adopted the plan of issuing bonds and building roads rapidly rather than pursuing the slow course of constructing them from current taxes. We have benefited much from this course in that we now have over 8,000 miles of hard surfaced roads and we have had good roads over a period of years, while other states were building them. We have reaped large development and grown by leaps and bounds during this period as a result of our magnificent system of highways, while many of our sister states were marking time. But we have lost something by pioneering in road building because traffic over these highways has increased so tremendously and the vehicles using them are heavier and larger and operate with so much greater speed than was ever contemplated that it is manifest that these highways are insufficient to stand the strain, and many of them have had to be rebuilt and otherwise standardized and improved. This is no criticism of the early work. It was splendid, but the requirements of today are so much greater that we must widen many of these roads, remove dangerous curves, rebuild some of them and make them safe for those who use them under present conditions. It will require much money to do this necessary work.

We also have 50,000 miles of secondary roads, usually classified as county or farm-to-market roads. The maintenance of these roads is both a heavy expense and a continuing obligation. In order that these roads might be placed in passable condition all the year round I exercised the authority conferred upon me by statute and allocated from the surplus fund two million dollars in August, 1937, and an additional two million in May, 1938, in addition to the regular legislative appropriation to be used for this purpose. I think there will be general agreement that these secondary roads are now in the best condition for years.

In August, 1938, under the same authority, I allocated $2,200,000 for widening and improving the primary roads in an effort to procure $1,800,000 from the WPA fund. We did not succeed in getting this, but arrangements were made to allocate so much as could be profitably spent in conjunction with the WPA funds for specific road projects in various parts of the state. The balance of the funds will be used for the purposes of the allotment on primary roads.

The original plan of building a state system of roads has not been abandoned and should not be. The road system should serve the people of the whole state and the whole public. But a sincere effort has been made to give every section of the state comparable benefits from road construction and to provide comparable road facilities as far as circumstances would permit. This does no violence to the idea of a state highway system but rather strengthens the feeling that no part of the state is being neglected.

Bond Issues for Roads

The State has issued bonds in total sum of $115,000,000 for roads. In addition $1,250,000 in bonds were issued for the Cape Fear bridge and $550,000 for the Chowan bridge, making a grand total of $116,-

800,000. These bonds are being retired at the rate of nearly five million annually, besides interest payments. The bonds outstanding of this date are $82,321,000 but we have an accumulated sinking fund invested in these bonds amounting to $9,891,234, which leaves a balance of $72,432,000. Under our present rate of payment we will liquidate all of these bonds by 1951. The interest payments are growing less each year.

In order to preserve the vast investment which we have made in these hard surfaced roads and to protect the public in the use of them a definite program should be put into effect at once to standardize and modernize these highways. Current funds are insufficient to retire the bonds, pay the interest and do the work imperatively required at this time. Therefore I recommend that you authorize an issue of $5,000,000 to be used for this purpose during the next biennium. The net result of this will be that we will retire only half as many bonds during the next two years, but we will be able to sell these bonds at a much lower rate than the former issues, and hence we will save on interest charges. No bonds were issued for roads at the Special Session last August, and none have been issued for eight years.

Diversion of Highway Funds

This brings me to the policy of the State with reference to the diversion of highway funds. That policy is well settled and I think wisely followed. I share fully and heartily the views of those who oppose diversion, and I have sacredly kept that faith during my term of office. In my Inaugural Message I announced in clear and unmistakable language that I was opposed to diversion but that I believed that it should continue to be possible to apply the 3 per cent sales tax to gasoline for the benefit of the general fund to the extent necessary to meet the appropriations made by the General Assembly when and if the general fund should become exhausted. That policy was considered wise and was adopted two years ago and not one cent has been diverted, because fortunately the general revenues have been sufficient to meet the appropriations. I am in favor of continuing that policy and I do not regard that as diversion.

There are those who wish to reduce the levy on gasoline to 5½ cents for road purposes and levy half a cent for the general fund, making the levy six cents as at present. I am opposed to that. It would be opening the door for greater levies in the future for general purposes and would also result in using the proceeds from the half cent levy whether needed or not. Under our present law gasoline is exempt from the sales tax. Some suggest that the exemption be stricken out and let the consumer pay the sales tax, which would be equivalent to adding another half-cent per gallon. I am also opposed to that method for the reasons already stated and because I think the motorist is paying enough taxes. The present method is fair and just—is not a diversion in fact, but simply permits the application of the sales tax to gasoline to the extent required to meet the imperative necessities of the State and preserve its credit. The other State agencies pay several hundred thousand dollars in taxes annually to the road fund on the gasoline used in the operation of school busses and for other purposes and it is right that they should.

Constitutional Amendment

I am definitely opposed to a Constitutional amendment on the question of diversion. I would be opposed to any Constitutional provision segregating any part of the State's funds or resources for any purpose so they would not be available for the State in the hour of emergency. We have had to meet serious economic crises in the past and we shall have to meet them again. The resources of the State ought not to be locked up by a Constitutional provision so that its General Assembly could not utilize them to save it in a period of dire distress. You can trust the people of North Carolina and their representatives to safeguard this fund. Public sentiment would demand it. But we must not forget that North Carolina has other sacred interests besides roads and we should see the State as a whole.

It will be argued that the people wish to vote on the Constitutional amendment and as evidence you will receive many petitions. Signing petitions has no special significance. If the opportunity was afforded you would get an equally large number of signers in favor of reducing the tax on gasoline from 6 to 3 cents per gallon, but you wouldn't even consider that. You cannot afford to adopt the policy of legislating by petition. The question may be asked why not give the people the right to vote on it anyway? The reason is that you do not submit any other question of similar import to the people and members of the Legislature are charged with responsibility for providing the measures to raise revenue and the expenditure of funds so raised are not properly the subject of Constitutional regulation. The effort is to regulate a temporary matter by provisions of the fundamental law. The Constitutional Convention of New York this year wisely refused to include such amendment in the Constitution submitted to the people.

Let's analyze the situation. The bonds issued for road construction pledge the full faith and credit of the State for their payment and they amount to a first mortgage on all the property in the State. About $73,000,000 of these bonds are still outstanding and the whole State is liable for the payment of every dollar. The State has given the road fund the monopoly on its greatest source of income, to-wit, the tax on gasoline and license taxes on motor vehicles. Now the proposition is that the State shall be forever barred from using any of this fund, no matter how great the emergency, nor how necessary to maintain and protect its own credit.

To illustrate in human relationship: A fond mother borrows $116,000,000 to establish her son in business and mortgages all of her property of every kind to secure it. The son is faithful to his trust, does well in business, uses the money wisely, repays much of the borrowed money. The mother has many other children and interests and demands are heavy upon her, while economic disaster has vitally reduced her revenue during the period of the depression. The son pays a million dollars a year for four years from the revenues of his business to help save the credit of his mother and enable her to meet her obligations. Just as soon as her business improves she does not ask him for any further assistance. In the meantime, the people who sell goods on which the son receives tribute conceive the plan to have the son amend the charter of his company so that no matter what sort of dire necessity may overtake the mother that the son can never again come to her aid financially, and this notwithstanding the fact that all the property of the mother is still under mortgage for around $73,000,000 for borrowed money which the son is using in his business. The question which you will have to answer is: Should the son amend his charter and forever foreclose his right to come to the assistance of his own mother in her hour of need?

No man here would be willing to close the door in this fashion against his mother in the flesh. I am unwilling to offer the opportunity to close the door against the governmental mother—North Carolina, and let it be locked and the key thrown away, while she is responsible for the education of 900,000 children, for the care of over 7,000 helpless people in the hospitals for the insane, for over 12,000 in her colleges, for the other thousands in charitable and correctional institutions, and more than 32,000 old people in need and 20,000 dependent children and with other multiplied demands to be met daily. I see North Carolina as a whole and I would not forget her manifold obligations.

Labor Legislation

The last General Assembly enacted labor legislation placing North Carolina in the forefront of states providing some protection for those who labor in industry. The child labor bill adopted has been accorded high praise and is accepted as setting a standard for the several States. The law prescribing hours for adult males was the first ever enacted in this State. It represented the basis upon which a more perfect measure may be provided, and I commit to you a study of this question without specific recommendation at this time, except to say that this law ought to be amended to more nearly harmonize with present standards.

I rejoice that the lot of all those who work has been improved. Wages are better, hours are shorter, opportunities are greater and there is employment for more people. Peace and good will prevail to a marked degree among employers and employees and there is manifest interest and concern for the mutual well being of all. I heartily commend both the employers and the employed and congratulate each that we have come through the past two years without any major disturbances and with a minimum of friction anywhere.

No Reapportionment Now

I do not recommend a reapportionment of representation by this General Assembly for the reason that the new census of 1940 would require a new reapportionment by the next Assembly. It should be definitely agreed, however, that there will be a reapportionment immediately following the 1940 census regardless of which counties may lose or gain in representation. There can be no legitimate excuse for failure to follow the mandate of the Constitution in this regard and we ought never to ignore this provision.

The Death Penalty

There are four crimes for which the death penalty is prescribed—murder, rape, burglary and arson. In each case where there is a conviction for the highest offense the punishment is arbitrarily fixed and must be imposed by the Court. In many cases both court and jury feel that the extreme penalty ought not to be invoked, but there is no alternative. It seems to me that it would be helpful in the administration of justice if the power to impose a penalty of life imprisonment instead of death was residuary in either the jury or court or both, to be exercised when the facts of the case warranted.

Another matter worthy of your consideration is the possible change from the gas chamber to the electric chair as a means of execution. Those who witness the executions are practically unanimous in the view that the electric chair produces death almost instantaneously and is more humane. I share this view. The State continues to kill in the death chamber and, sad to relate, people continue to commit capital crimes in increasing numbers on the outside.

Safety on the Highways

In the year of 1937 we reached an unhappy peak in the slaughter of men, women and children on our highways, the total number killed being 1123 and the injured numbering 7990. The Division of Public Safety led in an intensive campaign, supported and participated in by the State Highway Patrol, county and municipal officials, the newspapers, radio stations, churches, schools, civic clubs and many other organizations, to create public sentiment for the safe use of the highways. The effort has partially succeeded. North Carolina has become safety conscious and the result has been a reduction in fatalities and injuries. Notwithstanding more cars were licensed in the State than ever before and greatly increased travel upon the highways by those from other States, we had 216 fewer killed upon the highways in 1938. This is encouraging, but we must continue the campaign of both education and enforcement.

I commend fully the work accomplished and believe that an appropriation should be made to continue safety work and more thoroughly organize its activities. In this respect I am moved to earnestly recommend that the State Highway Patrol be increased by the addition of fifty more patrolmen, which will enable this splendid organization to do even more effective work for the State.

Advertising the State

The results of the State advertising program have been most satisfactory. The State is becoming favorably known throughout the nation and its resources and opportunities are being intelligently presented and the many attractions which we have to offer tourists have been heralded to the four corners of the country in advertising and news stories. During the year 1938, 122 new industries came to North Carolina and 70 other industries expanded. These ranged all the way from hosiery mills to a two million dollar cigarette paper manufacturing plant, and a seven million dollar steam electrical plant—the second largest in the world to be erected by a private company. The payrolls of these industries will exceed $11,000,000 annually. More people visited the State last year than during any similar period of its history and this was directly reflected in the greatly increased revenue from sale of gasoline, surpassing all previous records. It is not contended that the advertising program is responsible for all of these developments, but it cannot be denied that good results have been achieved and I sincerely recommend a continuation of the appropriation. More people visited Smoky Mountain National Park this year than any other park in the nation, save one, and careful estimates show that North Carolina tourist business has increased from $25,000,000 in 1936 to over $60,000,000 in 1938. With proper direction I make bold to predict that in less than ten years the tourist business will be worth more to the State than the tobacco and cotton crops combined, and every section will share in this benefit.

Taxation

This important subject has been discussed only incidentally. I shall transmit to you at an early date the report of the Budget Commission, making its recommendations as to both taxes and appropriations. Your greatest task will be raising revenue. I like the idea of formulating a permanent tax measure so that the public may know with some degree of assurance what the general tax policy of the State will be, with the thought that succeeding General Assemblies, instead of revising and re-enacting the whole tax bill, will confine its work to making such changes, modifications or additions as may be deemed wise. North Carolina needs new industries to aid in the utilization of our raw materials and undeveloped resources; to provide profitable employment for an increasing number of workers who wish to work and seek only the opportunity of making an honest living and who are dependable and almost wholly native born. Every section of the State needs these new industries, but especially the eastern part of the State would be greatly helped by added payrolls, as would also the extreme western section.

One of the best inducements for the location of new enterprises is a fair and stable tax system. I do not believe in the policy of offering free sites and tax exemption privileges to new enterprises to locate in the State, for it would not be fair to competing industries already located here and paying taxes, but I do believe in assuring them of fair and just treatment and the same protection of the law accorded every other citizen of the State, both as to his personal and property rights.

Your Commission on Classification of Property has made a most valuable contribution to our tax study and I commend the report to your careful consideration.

In this connection I think if you would authorize the establishment of a real tax research division in the Revenue Department and provide for the services of an expert to devote his whole time to the study of our tax system and the tax systems of other States, you would make a real contribution to the solution of many of our tax problems.

Miscellaneous Causes

Failure to discuss the reports of various commissions or recommendations of departments should not be construed as minimizing their importance. This has special reference to the Department of Justice. Just how much you can do at this time will have to be determined after you have investigated fully the very able and comprehensive report, but certainly much can be accomplished in the way of coordination. Some confusion exists in the public mind with reference to the new Justice Building to be erected fronting the capitol grounds, on the theory that a department of justice building was being erected before a Department of Justice was established. The erection of this building has no relation to the establishment of any such department. This building is for the purpose of housing all the agencies engaged in the administration of justice, chief of which is the Supreme Court, and has no connection with the consolidation of any departments.

There are so many important causes that will require earnest consideration at your hands, such as the enlarged program of public health, the expending vocational educational work, the pressing demand for extended State library service, greater support for the adult education work, the establishment of a permanent exposition, better regulations for appointing magistrates, providing for rule making by the Supreme Court, strengthening of our State antilynching statute, the enactment of a bill for roadside improvement and beautification, the retirement fund for teachers, State and municipal employees, and other similar measures, that I shall have to content myself now with a mere solicitation of your interest in and study of these important matters, some of which I may wish to discuss with you later.

New Social Security Agencies

Under the direction of the Unemployment Compensation Commission over 200,000 workers received payments in 1938 during periods of unemployment which totaled over $8,000,000. This new and complicated social security agency has been set up and administered more economically than most of the other States, considering the number of claims processed, and the workers received this tremendous assistance for the first time last year. The State, therefore, has had a magnificent program of expanding service. The old age assistance, dependent children and help to the blind activity is participated in by the federal, state and county and this has proven a wise and salutary provision, and similar responsibility should be continued. This sort of arrangement has saved the whole program from going on the rocks. The payments now go monthly to 31,664 old people in need, 20,836 dependent children and 1,961 blind people requiring help. The average monthly payments to old people is $9.30, to children $5.56, and to blind $14.60. The numbers will have to be gradually increased and the amounts somewhat enlarged, but this provision for those in need has been an indispensable blessing and has saved much suffering.

Splendid Cooperation

No Governor has ever had finer cooperation from the Council of State and other State officials and those commanding the various departments of State government. I wish to acknowledge my personal debt of gratitude for their loyalty, efficient service and fine consecration to the public good. It has been an inspiration to work with them and share in some measure the service they are rendering the State. We believe that economy is still a virtue in government and I am happy to say to you that your government is making a record in economical administration that has not been duplicated in any other State when you consider the service rendered. Thrift, economy and work are three good words applicable to government as well as the everyday affairs of life, and these have found expression in the conduct of your public business.

The Future Outlook

I am proud of North Carolina. I am not unmindful of our shortcomings and limitations. We have grappled with poverty for generations and we are still poor. We lack many things. We have come a long way and we still have a long way to go—but we are on the way. We know the problems to be solved and the difficulties to be overcome, but we are neither discouraged nor dismayed and we shall not be defeated. We are conscious of real accomplishments in the past and of substantial attainments in the present and we know the needs of the future. We are determined that as the lengthening shadows of tomorrow's sun fall across this commonwealth it shall be illumined with a brighter hope for all the people than they have dared to conceive heretofore.

We face the future unafraid. We go forward daringly. We shall be practical enough to count the cost, idealistic enough to see the possibilities, courageous enough to follow the gleam and unselfish enough to make the sacrifice. We will dedicate ourselves patriotically to the high task of state building. Rich in history, hallowed in tradition, unfailing in faith and unyielding in loyalty—this citizenship rises to meet the future with resolute purpose and high hope. United in the common bonds of good will, free from class distinctions and racial hatreds, from group antagonisms and factional prejudices, we shall educate our children, train and equip our young men and women for work and make them self-reliant and independent, care for the unfortunate, minister to the old and afflicted, develop our industries and improve our agriculture, enrich rural life and better the condition of those who labor, raising the standard of living for all and preserving here the essence of free government, where human and property rights shall be safeguarded and every constitutional guaranty of the citizen held sacred.

With a fresh baptism in the faith of the fathers, a new reverence for God and spiritual values, a better understanding of the brotherhood of man and a determined purpose to lift humanity to higher levels, we can build here in this blessed state a civilization that will save the nation.

Respectfully submitted,

CLYDE R. HOEY,
Governor.

HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

A JOINT RESOLUTION TO INVITE THE HONORABLE JACK DEMPSEY TO ATTEND A SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA AND APPEAR BEFORE THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Whereas, the Honorable Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, will be a visitor in the City of Raleigh on Thursday, the 12th day of January 1939, now therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

Section 1. That the Honorable Jack Dempsey be invited to attend a Session of the General Assembly at 12 o'clock Noon on Thursday, the 12th day of January, 1939, and appear before the House of Representatives.

Section 2. That three members from the House be appointed by the Speaker to deliver this resolution to the Honorable Jack Dempsey.

Section 3. That this resolution shall be in force and effect from and after its ratification.

Read and adopted January 11, 1939.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO ALEXANDER LASSITER

Whereas, this House has learned of the physical affliction of Alexander Lassiter, late Chief Clerk of this House, and for years one of its officials, who by reason of his infirmities has suffered the loss of both legs by amputation, Now, therefore,

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. That this House of Representatives expresses to him in his hour of distress and affliction, its sincerest sympathy, and at the same time presents him with its regards for his past performances and services to the State of North Carolina and the General Assembly of the State, in the discharge of the duties of the office of Chief Clerk of the lower House, which office he filled with credit, ability, satisfaction and discretion.

Section 2. That a copy of this resolution be sent to Alexander Lassiter at Aulander, North Carolina.

Read and adopted March 13, 1939.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO DAVID M. BUCK

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. This House has learned with unfeigned sorrow and deep regret of the untimely passing of our late colleague, the Honorable David M. Buck of the County of Yancey. Dave Buck was one of the finest characters, the most devoted servants that the people of North Carolina, through his county, ever sent to the General Assembly of North Carolina. He was often a member of this body, and in its deliberations exhibited a devotion to duty and a performance of his trust rarely equalled, and never surpassed by any of its members. In life, and all of its contacts, he exhibited those qualities which endeared him to all with whom he came in contact. Honest, high-minded, devoted to duty and its performance, courageous, sincere and faithful, he was an ideal Representative.

In his untimely passing, we desire as his colleagues to express to those near and dear to him our unfeigned sorrow and try to express our appreciation of him as a man and a servant of his people. He now sleeps in "sweet peace eternal," underneath the shadows of the hills back in his mountain land, there to await his final summons, which in our opinion, will be accompanied by the salutation, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of our Lord."

Section 2. That a copy of this resolution be sent to his bereaved family, and a copy also be spread upon the Journals of this House.

Read and adopted March 15, 1939.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO REPRESENTATIVE MCBRYDE, MR. OSCAR BREECE AND THE MAYOR OF FAYETTEVILLE FOR HOSPITALITY EXTENDED MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON THEIR RECENT VISIT TO FAYETTEVILLE.

Whereas, through the courtesy and hospitality of Representative D. Lacy McBryde, Mr. Oscar Breece and Mr. J. S. McFadyen, the Mayor of Fayetteville, a most delightful visit was made to the City of Fayetteville by members of the House of Representatives on the afternoon and evening of March 15, Now therefore,

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. That the thanks of the members of the House of Representatives be extended to Representative D. Lacy McBryde, Mr. Oscar Breece, and Mr. J. S. McFadyen, the Mayor of Fayetteville, for the recent delightful motor trip to Fayetteville on March fifteenth, a boat ride on the Cape Fear River and the shad supper provided for them.

Section 2. That this resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

Read and adopted April 17, 1939.

A RESOLUTION PETITIONING THE GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL OF STATE TO ARRANGE TIME FOR THE ERECTION OF STATE BUILDINGS WHEN THE LEGISLATURE IS NOT IN SESSION.

Whereas, the noise from the riveting in the erection of the State building now in progress has been and is very annoying to the members of the House of Representatives: Now, therefore,

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. That the Governor and Council of State be and they are hereby requested to set the time for the erection of State buildings, in the future, if the work in the erection of such buildings will be of a noisy and disturbing nature, at a time other than during the sittings of the Legislature.

Sec. 2. That this resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its ratification.

Read and adopted April 1, 1939.
